Professional Internship Program

With awe-inspiring scenery and a rich tapestry of culture, Canada has got everything to fulfil the desires of even the most seasoned traveller. Canada has influences from England, France and its neighbouring country, the US within its culture. Both English and French are the official languages of Canada, with both being used at a Federal Level. Canada is geographically the second largest country, 2nd only to Russia. Its major cities maintain a modern lifestyle with an abundance of cafés, markets and attractions. Canada is truly a diverse place that has something to offer for everyone.

The Canadian Internship program is designed for students and young professionals who would like to gain valuable work experience in the area of their studies. Placements within this program are un-paid positions which are located in Vancouver or Whistler. The programs are available in a wide variety of fields.
