Professional Internship Program

The little country Singapore is located South of Malaysia and North of Indonesia. It consist of 63 islands including the big main island. There are two man-made connections to mainland Malaysia in the north and west. Singapore has many residential towns and well-developed infrastructure throughout the main island. About 23% of Singapore's land area consists of forest and nature reserves. The temperatures are uniformly high all year round and the humidity can be as high as 90%. Singapore City is and has been for a long time a dynamic trading port between East and West. This created a centre with many interesting sights, fantastic food and shopping opportunities.

Opportunities are available with leading companies in Singapore to ensure a high quality training experience. All internships are paid, with the minimum intern wage being 800 SGD. The program will give applicants the chance to develop new skills and gain experience in their field of studies. An internship in Singapore could be your first step into an international career.
